By Mr. GEORGE JAMISON, and the entire strength of a company expressly augmented for this engagement.

A CARD FROM THE MANAGER.
In order to effect an engagement so highly important and destrable, Mr. Wood, confidently relying upon a refined public tasts for reimbursement, did not hesitate to assure to these renowed artists terms, the estimated aggregate of which each night exceeds the monetary capacity of the theatre at the present prices; or to add heavily to the current expenses of his establishment, in the hope of securing for the engagement its proper artistic effect; under these circumstances he appeals to the liberality of his patrons, and to the consideration of a generous public, to anotion the advance which he has been compelled to make in the prices of admission.

ADMISSION ONE DOLLAR.
